What is a school-based traineeship (SBAT)?

A school-based apprenticeship or traineeship (SBAT) arrangement combines part-time work, structured training with a registered training organisation and school studies.

SBAT is available to high school students in Years 10-12 and enables them to gain a nationally recognised qualification and combine their school study with paid employment, as well as the opportunity to gain valuable work skills and increase future employment options.

A SBAT may give students credit towards their Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE) or Victorian Certificate of Applied Learning (VCAL).

Why should schools and employers support this program?

Integrity Business College assists young Australians to have a head start on their careers by being a School Based Trainee while still completing their secondary school education.

Students gain the following:

- Valuable employment skills
- Hands-on industry experience
- Paid work-placement
- Contribution towards the students VCE or VCAL
- Successful completion of a nationally recognised qualification (Certificate III in Business BSB30120)
